Zelaya Without a Peer "What I am concerned in," continued Rayner, "is the speedy apprehension and punishment of Zelaya. I have watched for years the revolutionary history of Central America, and am familiar with the career of a great many of the imposters and usurpers and the grotesque and motley leaders that have spung from their chaotic institutions, but Zelaya is probably the most despicable figure that has ever risen in their midst. "In the school of corruption, dishonor perfidy, and crime he stands without a peer, and exhibits in one glow of asso-ciated harmony the pride of every model and the perfection of every mester. I have been informed upon the most reliable authority that the vices of his private life are more infamous in their describable details than the iniquities of his public career.

Now, as the culminating infamy of his administration, tramping upon every instinct of humanity, in violation of universal law, in defiance of those pre-cepts of the international code that have been recognized ever since the night of barbarism receded before the rays of civilization, he has put to torture and then to death two American citizens whom he had captured as prisoners of war in the army of the revolutionists. This act was not only the act of a fiend, but was an insult to the honor of this republic, and cannot remain unavenged.

Would Declare Limited Hostilities. "It is said that we ought to declare war against Nicaragua. I think that it is unnecessary, except in so far as this resolution may be construed into what is known in international law as a declaration of hostility sub modo-some of the authorities speaking of it as limited or imperfect hostilities.

"This Government is a cowardly Government if it does not make an example of Zelaya before the eyes of the civilized of Zelaya before the eyes of the civilized world. I have supreme confidence in the Secretary of State and I believe that he is reaching toward the end. I have also an abiding confidence in the President. Once spread before the American people the details of the execution and our people will rise in arms and demand retribution."

Zelaya Ready to Flee.

Zelaya was ready to flee, he said, and would leave when the plunder gave out. He hoped that the insurgents would be given American help only on condition that Zelaya be not allowed to escape.

"The laws of God and of civilization and the honor of the Republic demand and the honor of the Republic demand that he be brought to trial," shouted the Senator. "If he is guilty he must be awarded the doom and fate that he deserves, so that every tyrant on this earth and in every nation under the sun, and in every government, large or small, and especially these dictators in several of these Central American states who have exhibited to us at times the bitterest hatred and visited upon our citizens the most cruel indignities and outrages, shall be told once and forever that our flag follows our citizens wherever they go, and that when an assassination like this occurs the malefactor must take his piace like any other culprit at the bar of criminal justice, and must answer for the deed with his liberty or his lift."

Lodge Speaks Also.

Lodge Speaks Also.

When Senator Hayner closed Senator Lodge spoke briefly and said he was glad to know that Senator Rayner approved the action of the Administration. said the difficulty was to separate act of President Zelaya himself from the acts of the people of Nicaragua. He advised that the resolution go to the Committee on Foreign Relations. The resolution was referred to that committee and Senator Cullom of Illinois, chairman of that committee, said when it was reported back he would have somehing to say to the Senate.

LONDON, Dec. 13 .- A committe of suffragettes today sent a manifestto to Premier Asquith that his offer to submit to the next parliament an equal rights bill was wholly unsatisfactory, because the Liberals had given this same promise at the last election and had repudiated it.

In view of their inability to get relief from either the Liberals or Con-servatives, the suffragettes have deservatives, the suffragettes have decided to adopt obstructive methods in the coming general election, and, by a recourse to violence, hullify the election in as many districts as possible. This could be done, they say, by the destruction of ballot boxes. Last week the suffragettes were inclined to favor the Conservatives, but the leaders are now convinced that support of either party will delay their ultimate recognition. It was learned today that a number of anti-suffragettes had recently joined the ranks of the suffragettes, under the guise of conversion to the cause, and has to deal with countries who distrust

MEXICO WOULD AID

Uninvited Advice Proffered State Department As To Nicaragua.

GUNBOAT SENT TO SCENE OF TROUBLE

Neighboring Country Views With Alarm Steps Taken by Uncle Sam.

By JAMES HAY, Jr.

Mexico, having dispatched a gunboat to Nicaraguan waters and having sent making desperate efforts to get the privilege of having some word in the final adjustment of the affairs of the revolution-ridden Nicaragua,

It is regarded as certain, however, that this country, having set out on a drastic policy toward Nicaragua, will a drastic policy toward Nicaragua, will to accept them at their face value and treat with Mexico only in so far as the believe they were in reality the "outplans of Mexico fit in with the plans of pourings of a torrid soul."

Mexico is a Latin-American country no less than is Nicaragua or any other of the Central American countries Her sympathies are naturally with the Latin-Americans, and, despite the show of friendship between this country and Mexico, it can be stated on the highest authority that President Diaz and all steps the United States has taken in solving the problems brought up by the acts of Zelaya, president of Nicaragua.

Strong Corroboration. No better corroboration of this afternoon that a Mexican gunboat is now headed for Corinto. Mexico's eagerness to be allowed part in the Nicaraguan settlement bring to the State Department even a greate problem than was at first presented. It has been constantly given out at the State Department that all the other countries of Central America and Mexice herself favored heartily what this country has done to suppress Zelaya and demand vengeance for the killing of the two Americans, Groce and Cannon But to those who have kept in touc with the representattives of Latin America in Washington, to those who have read of the indignation meeting

Creel's Declaration. "I am here primarily for the purpos of doing all I can to establish peace in

In order to do this, he has made an engagement to see the Secretary of State, Mr. Knox, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. At his hotel today, how-ever, it was said that he was not in callers and that he was seeing repesentatives of the Latin-American

"I am in favor of the establishment of a United States of Central America, but the time is not type to.

As a matter of fact, ever since the trouble with Zelaya broke out, Mexico has been trying to have this country regard her as the important factor in settling the disputes. Two weeks ago, without solicitation from this Government in any way, the Mexican government sent to the State Department certain suggestions as to how the Nicaraguan tangle should be straightened out.

Complaint Follows.

The only sequel to these suggestion was a loud complaint, sent by wire from Mexico City, that they had been ignored has to deal with countries who distrust her and fear her. The talk of a United States of Central America has been heard from several quarters, but even Mr. Creel, who says he favors it, is without the necessary data as to how such a combination of five independent and separate countries is to be accomplished. It is practically certain that Mexico would not favor it unless she had as great a part as this Government in controlling the union of the leading revolutionists of modern times.

Knox tomorrow afternoon unless Mr.
Creel goes against the real wishes of Mexico and agrees to the policy of this Government. The United States means to put the Estrada party in power, and Mexico is not in favor of the Estrada uprising.

That this country means to carry he polley through to success is furth shown by the story which went trounds today that the order for additional marines to go to Nicaragua carafter this Government had learned Mexico's intention to send a gunbe to Corinto. There was a second port this afternoon that even more mines would be dispatched to the second possible trouble, but this was a substantiated by either the Navy the State Department.

declaring he was confident "Some kind of an understanding would be reached between the American Federation of Labor and the United States Steel Corporation," as a result of the labor council opened here today, President Samuel Gompers, of the Federation, would give no intimation of what action might be expected, previous to calling the conference to order.

At least 150 delegates, all leaders in various unions affiliated with the Federation, are expected to be present before the conference adjourns. James O'Conneil, of Washington, D. C., president of the International Association of Machinists; Timothy Healy, president of the Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen; W. D. Mahon, president of the Struct Railway Men's Association, and Lleweilyn Lewis, of the Amalgmated Association of Iron, Steel, and Tin Weikers, were among the early arrivals.

Though general strike conditions will be discussed and some action probably taken on the switchmen's strike in the Northwest, the main issue of the conference will be the laying of plans toward bringing about of the unionization of the employees of the United States Steel Corporation, and causing the corporation to abandon its open shop policy.

With this end in view everything points to a vigorous attack on the corporation with the strike-ridden tinplate plants, in Ohlo, Pernsylvania, and West Virginia, as the first points of attack.
